Jose Fernand, leader of a gang of boot-leggers, has evil designs on Helen Barnes, a shop girl who is the sole support of her delicate sister. Posing Olive Wood, an adventuress, as his sister, he lures the girls on a supposed yachting trip but purposely leaves the adventuress at home. The girls are taken to the smuggling ship, which immediately puts to sea. Helen is soon attacked by Fernand and dashes to the wireless operator for assistance. A terrific storm arises and a call for help is barely made before the ship sinks. An ocean liner picks up the S.O.S. and starts for the rescue. Helen's sweetheart, Jack Saville, a navy aviator, starts by airplane. The sisters and Fernand are cast upon a lonely island and are discovered by a hermit- its only inhabitant. Saville and his pilot make a forced landing on the island and locate the girls and Fernand. The whole party are then rescued by the ocean liner and brought to safety, bringing with them the hermit, who was cast upon the island years before
